- (c) That he or she has not contravened the Code of Conduct to Regulate, Monitor, and report trading by Insider as notified by the Company from time to time.
- (d) That he or she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.

8.3 Approval

The Compliance Officer shall process the Pre-clearance applications and if Pre-clearance application is in accordance and in compliance with the provisions of this Code, the Compliance Officer shall endeavor to communicate the Pre-clearance immediately but not later than two trading days from the date of receiving the application.

For Pre-clearance of trading in Securities by the Compliance Officer, approval of Chairman & Managing Director shall be required.

Every pre-clearance approval letter shall be issued in prescribed format (Form IV). Every approval shall be dated and shall be valid for a period of one week from the date of approval. However, such approval is automatically deemed to be withdrawn if such period is superceded by closure of Trading Window.

The Compliance Officer shall retain copies of all applications and acknowledgements and also maintain the Register of Pre-clearance of trade in prescribed format (Form V).

In exceptional circumstances consent may not be given if the Compliance Officer is of the opinion that the proposed trade is on the basis of possession of any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. There shall be no obligation to give reasons for any withholding of consent.

8.4 Other Restrictions

Designated persons and their immediate relatives shall execute their order in respect of Securities of the Company within one week after the approval of Pre-clearance is given. If the order is not executed within one week after the approval is given, the Designated Persons must Pre-clear the transaction again.

Designated Persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the company shall not enter into a reverse transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. Designated Persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the company at any time.

If a contra trade has been executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of above restriction, the profit from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the SEBI for credit to the Investor protection and Education Fund.

Trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan. Further, the trading window restrictions (except during the period of trading window closure at the end of every quarter for consideration of quarterly/annual financial results) shall not apply in respect of:

- a) off-market inter-se transfer between insiders who were in possession of same unpublished price sensitive information without violating provisions of this Code and Code of Fair Disclosure Practices for Prevention of Insider Trading and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.

Provided that any off-market trade carried out as above, shall be reported by insiders to the Company within two working days in Form-IX. The company shall notify particulars of such trade to stock exchanges on which securities are listed within two trading days from receipt of disclosure or becoming aware of such information.

- b) transactions carried out through block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of unpublished price sensitive information without violating provisions of this Code and Code of Fair Disclosure Practices for Prevention of Insider Trading and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.
- c) transactions carried out pursuant to statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.
- d) transaction undertaken pursuant to exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.
- e) trades pursuant to trading plan set up in accordance with Chapter VII of the Code.
- f) pledge of shares for a bonafide purpose such as raising of funds, subject to pre-clearance by the compliance officer and compliance with the respective regulations made by SEBI
- g) transactions which are undertaken in accordance with respective regulations made by SEBI such as acquisition by conversion of warrants or debentures, subscribing to rights issue, further public issue, preferential allotment or tendering of shares in a buy-back offer, open offer, delisting offer, Offer For Sale and Right Entitlements transactions carried out in accordance with the framework specified by SEBI from time to time

- h) transactions which are undertaken through such other mechanism as may be specified by SEBI from time to time.

In cases where sale of Securities is necessitated by personal emergency, the Compliance Officer may waive the Holding Period after recording in writing his or her reasons in this regard. An application for waiver of Holding Period shall be made to the Compliance Officer who shall maintain a Register of 'Waiver of restriction on holding investment in the Securities' for a minimum period of Six Months in the prescribed form (Form VI).

Provisions of the code relating to reverse transaction shall not apply in case of dealing in securities of NHPC Limited acquired under Offer for Sale by promoter, Buy-Back, open offers, right issues, bonus issues, employee stock options etc.

8.5 Completion of Pre-cleared Dealing

Whenever the Company proposes to organize meetings with Investment Analysts/ Institutional Investors, the Company shall make a Press Release or post relevant information on its website after every such meeting. The Company may also consider live web casting of analyst meets.

The Chief Investor Relations Officer shall be responsible for drafting of the press release or the text of the information to be posted on the Company's web-site, in consultation with the Chairman & Managing Director.

6 Medium of disclosure/ dissemination:

The Chief Investor Relations Officer in consultation with Compliance Officer and with approval of the Chairman & Managing Director shall disseminate all Unpublished Price Sensitive Information on a continuous and in a timely manner to stock exchanges where its Securities are listed and thereafter to the press.

The Unpublished Price Sensitive Information disclosed to the Stock Exchanges and to the Press may also be supplemented by prompt updates on the Company's website by the Chief Investor Relations Officer. The Company may also consider other modes of public disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information so as to improve investor access to the same.

The information filed by the Company with the Stock Exchanges under the Stock Exchange Listing Agreement shall also be posted on the Company's website.

7 Leak of unpublished price sensitive information:

- (i) Appropriate inquiries shall be initiated on becoming aware of leak of unpublished price sensitive information or suspected leak of unpublished price sensitive information.
- (ii) Procedure for inquiries shall be in accordance with provisions contained under Employees (Conduct, Discipline and Appeal) Rules of the Company.
- (iii) The Board of directors of the company and SEBI shall be promptly informed about such leaks, inquiries and results of such inquiries.
- (iv) In case of leak of unpublished price sensitive information by persons other than employees, the instances of leak shall be reported to concerned regulatory authorities/bodies.

8 Determination of 'legitimate purposes' and sharing of unpublished price sensitive information:

The "Unpublished Price Sensitive Information "(UPSI) may be shared only for the legitimate purposes on need to know basis.

The 'legitimate purposes' shall include sharing of unpublished price sensitive information in the ordinary course of business by an insider with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants, provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of these regulations.

The indicative list of 'legitimate purposes' for which UPSI can be shared is as under:

1. Sharing of information with auditors, debenture trustees or any other person during preparation of financial results.
2. Sharing of information with Merchant Bankers/Consultants in respect of capital restructuring such as buy-back of shares.

3. Sharing of information with Auditors/bankers/Consultants for declaration of dividend.
4. Sharing of information with Legal Advisors/Consultants for obtaining legal advice.

UPSI can be shared with the following in furtherance of the conduct/performance of their legal obligations/duties.

- Statutory Auditor(s)
- Secretarial Auditor(s)
- Internal Auditors and Cost Auditors
- Legal Advisors/Consultants
- Dividend Bankers
- Intermediaries like Registrar & Share Transfer Agent, Credit Rating Agency, Merchant Bankers etc.,
- Bankers/Financial Institutions
- Regulatory Authorities / Government Departments
- Any other person not covered above who may require access to UPSI to reasonably discharge his functions

The UPSI may emanate from any department within the Company and hence the onus shall be on the concerned Head of Department who is the originator of such UPSI to justify the need to share it with other person on the basis of their functional/legal requirement.

The concerned HOD also needs to notify the Compliance Officer about sharing the UPSI and also ensure that due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such UPSI in compliance with these regulations. The parties sharing UPSI under legitimate purposes shall execute agreements to maintain confidentiality and provide non-disclosure obligations and such parties shall keep information so received confidential. Parties shall not trade in securities of the company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

The nature of the UPSI, name of the person who have shared the UPSI and name of the person with whom the UPSI is shared shall be provided promptly to the Compliance Officer along with Permanent Account Number (PAN) or any other identifier authorized by law where PAN is not available for monitoring compliance with this code. Any person in receipt of unpublished price sensitive information pursuant to a "legitimate purpose" shall be considered as "insider" for purposes of this code.
