Corporate Social Responsibility & Sustainability

Contribute to economic development. It helps in improving the quality of life of the local community and society at large. The aim is mainly upliftment of the society in general and less privileged section in particular.

Over a period of time, CSR as a concept has evolved into social responsiveness than responsibility. As an activity, it is no longer an act of mere adherence to legalities or an ethical and philanthropic function. Today, CSR as a process is not separated from the core business of the company, but expresses itself in the very nature of the business.

NHPC, being a socially responsible corporate entity has always laid emphasis on inclusive growth of all stakeholders. Our focus has been on activities which have long term benefits and accordingly major expenditure has been done on activities like education, health, sanitation and rural development. Our efforts have been towards making meaningful difference to the life of people we serve.

I am glad to learn that CSR & SD Division is publishing its Annual Report for the financial year 2022-23. I appreciate the efforts by NHPC at various locations in documenting various activities and initiatives in the field of CSR. I extend my best wishes to all the members working in the CSR & SD Department for successful publication of this booklet.
